Render to Caesar and to God

AS WE GATHER

One of the most famous sayings of Jesus appears to provide a neat and tidy divide between the worldly power of government and the spiritual power of the Church. Is that really what Christ is doing? Is He marking the divide or is He commending all things and the ultimate authority to the saving purpose of our heavenly Father?

The things that belong to Caesar appear to be valuable in the moment but are temporary and temporal. The things of God are everything—all things in heaven and earth. They are eternal. In reality, there is nothing that does not belong to God, although the Lord assigns different people with the different responsibilities of church and state. In this question of who is in charge, God makes it clear that He is always in charge and always working for our salvation.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

THE APOSTLES CREED

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Christian church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

OPENING SENTENCES 1 Chronicles 16:28; Psalm 28:8; 29:2, 11; 68:34; 1 Peter 4:11

Pastor: Ascribe to the Lord, O clans of the peoples, ascribe to the Lord glory and strength!

People: The Lord is the strength of His people; He is the saving refuge of His anointed.

Pastor: Ascribe to the Lord the glory due His name; worship the Lord in the splendor of holiness.

Pastor: Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

People: I confess to God Almighty, before the whole company of heaven and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have sinned in thought, word, and deed by my fault, by my own fault, by my own most grievous fault; wherefore I pray God Almighty to have mercy on me, forgive me all my sins, and bring me to everlasting life. Amen.

Pastor: Almighty God in His mercy has given His Son to die for you and for His sake forgives you all your sins. As a called and ordained servant of Christ, and by His authority, I therefore forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the ☩ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Pastor: O God, the protector of all who trust in You,

People: Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT READING Isaiah 45:1–7 (The Lord tells King Cyrus He will use him for the sake of Israel.)

This is what the Lord says to Cyrus, his anointed one, whose right hand he will empower. Before him, mighty kings will be paralyzed with fear.

Their fortress gates will be opened, never to shut again.

² This is what the Lord says: "I will go before you, Cyrus, and level the mountains. I will smash down gates of bronze and cut through bars of iron.

³ And I will give you treasures hidden in the darkness—secret riches.

I will do this so you may know that I am the Lord,
the God of Israel, the one who calls you by name.

⁴ "And why have I called you for this work?

Why did I call you by name when you did not know me?
It is for the sake of Jacob my servant, Israel my chosen one.

⁵ I am the Lord; there is no other God.

I have equipped you for battle, though you don't even know me,

⁶ so all the world from east to west will know there is no other God.

I am the Lord, and there is no other.

⁷ I create the light and make the darkness.

I send good times and bad times. I, the Lord, am the one who does these things.

Reader: This is the Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God!

EPISTLE READING 1 Thessalonians 1:1–10 (Paul commends the Thessalonians for spreading the Gospel.)

This letter is from Paul, Silas, and Timothy.

We are writing to the church in Thessalonica, to you who belong to God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

May God give you grace and peace.

The Faith of the Thessalonian Believers

² We always thank God for all of you and pray for you constantly. ³ As we pray to our God and Father about you, we think of your faithful work, your loving deeds, and the enduring hope you have because of our Lord Jesus Christ.

⁴ We know, dear brothers and sisters, that God loves you and has chosen you to be his own people. ⁵ For when we brought you the Good News, it was not only with words but also with power, for the Holy Spirit gave you full assurance that what we said was true. And you know of our concern for you from the way we lived when we were with you. ⁶ So you received the message with joy from the Holy Spirit in spite of the severe suffering it brought you. In this way, you imitated both us and the Lord. ⁷ As a result, you have become an example to all the believers in Greece—throughout both Macedonia and Achaia.

⁸ And now the word of the Lord is ringing out from you to people everywhere, even beyond Macedonia and Achaia, for wherever we go we find people telling us about your faith in God. We don't need to tell them about it, ⁹ for they keep talking about the wonderful welcome you gave us and how you turned away from idols to serve the living and true God. ¹⁰ And they speak of how you are looking forward to the coming of God's Son from heaven—Jesus, whom God raised from the dead. He is the one who has rescued us from the terrors of the coming judgment.

Reader: This is the Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God!

HOLY GOSPEL Matthew 22:15–22 (Jesus teaches about rendering civil authorities their due.)

Reader: ¹⁵ Then the Pharisees met together to plot how to trap Jesus into saying something for which he could be arrested. ¹⁶ They sent some of their disciples, along with the supporters of Herod, to meet with him. "Teacher," they said, "we know how honest you are. You teach the way of God truthfully. You are impartial and don't play favorites. ¹⁷ Now tell us what you think about this: Is it right to pay taxes to Caesar or not?"

People: ¹⁸ But Jesus knew their evil motives. "You hypocrites!" he said. "Why are you trying to trap me? ¹⁹ Here, show me the coin used for the tax."

Reader: When they handed him a Roman coin, ²⁰ he asked, "Whose picture and title are stamped on it?" ²¹ "Caesar's," they replied.

People: "Well, then," he said, "give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and give to God what belongs to God."

Reader: ²² His reply amazed them, and they went away.

Reader: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to You, O Christ.

MESSAGE – Pastor Christopher Fairbairn

The question is not what is Caesar's and what is God's.

It's all God's, the question is, are you giving back to God what is truly His.

How do we know what belongs to God? What bears His image? A coin may bear the image of president. But you and I bear the image of God.

What image do others see in you as you live out each day?

PRAYER OF THE CHURCH

Pastor: Let us pray for the whole people of God in Christ Jesus and for all people according to their needs.
Give to Your Church, O Lord, Your Word and Your Spirit, that we hear Your voice and follow where You lead, proclaiming Your Gospel to every corner of the world. Lord, in Your mercy,

People: hear our prayer.

Pastor: Give to the nations good and faithful leaders who will work under the guidance of Your Word to lead the peoples with equity and justice, fostering freedom so that we may worship You and love our neighbor, living in peace and quietness all our days. Lord, in Your mercy,

People: hear our prayer.

Pastor: Give to all people respect for the gift of life, courage to stand against those who would disdain the child in the womb or the aged, and encourage husbands and wives, parents and children in their life together. Lord, in Your mercy,

People: hear our prayer.

Pastor: Give to the sick and those who suffer every blessing of Your presence and healing in accordance with Your will, that they be supported in their afflictions and granted patience until the day when perfect healing reigns. [Hear us especially for . . .] Lord, in Your mercy,

People: hear our prayer.

Pastor: Give to us eyes to see Your goodness and the gifts of Your mercy that crown all our days, and give to our hearts gratitude that we use Your gifts for Your glory, for the good of our neighbors in need, and for the support of the work of the Kingdom here and throughout the world. Lord, in Your mercy,

People: hear our prayer.

Pastor: All these things, heavenly Father, for which we pray, grant to us according to Your mercy, providing to us all things needful and beneficial and keeping from us all things as may prove harmful to our faith; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

People: Amen.

| 3 Crown Him the Lord of love.
 Behold His hands and side,
 Rich wounds, yet visible above,
 In beauty glorified.
 No angels in the sky
 Can fully bear that sight,
 But downward bend their wond'ring eyes
 At mysteries so bright. | 4 Crown Him the Lord of life,
 Who triumphed o'er the grave
 And rose victorious in the strife
 For those He came to save.
 His glories now we sing,
 Who died and rose on high,
 Who died eternal life to bring
 And lives that death may die. |

There was a healthy turnout at FOG on the first Tuesday of October (6th). It was a lovely evening with sunshine and warm weather. The featured entree was a chicken pasta dish. The big hit, however, was the brownies, chocolate chip cookies and Oreo's. The kids were crazy for the brownies and they were gone first. One gentleman came to the table five times asking for more cookies. Clearly he had come to the right place for his sweet tooth needs. Pastor Nick provided a lesson on the importance of family and how love for family must be a priority in our lives. This topic is particularly meaningful for Pastor Nick as he is an 'in love' new father. All but two casseroles were consumed. We left the remaining casseroles in the kitchen for any late comers or next day meals. Thanks to everyone who provided a donation. This mission means so much to the children and adults who visit the church seeking a nutritious meal. The next Tuesday night meal for FOG is Nov. 3 (our church also provides a Wednesday meal, October 21st). Watch for the sign up Genius, if you didn't get it this month, it may have ended up in your spam. I am hearing Sign Up Genius and other things (such as attachments, or links) may be issues with Micro-Soft and AI. I welcome people who may know and could give me some direction.

Another great time was had by all in Sunday School last week. Gym time, singing, snack and a Bible lesson-- what a great way to spend an hour! We also had three new students, which means everyone got to pick something out of the prize bin. We thank our Mighty Men team of Tom Adler, Lenny Elliott, Mark Robinson, and Tom Norton for supervising the gym. If you ask nicely, they will help shoot hoops or throw a pass!

The Sunday School kids learned this week we are followers of Jesus and what it means to follow Him today. Jesus called the disciples to leave their fishing nets (and steady livelihoods!) and follow Him. We talked about how we can follow Jesus-- by listening to His Word, serving others, and sharing His love, even when it is uncomfortable.
