Dear Confirmand and Parents,

Again, THANK YOU for your faithful help with the acolyte program. I hope you are enjoying this important experience.

Here is the 2018 summer schedule in advance. Although some of you will have been confirmed, we continue to need you in worship until the end of September. By this time we will have trained the new 7th graders on acolyting.

>>PLEASE DO NOT SKIP your Sunday! Replace yourself.

I realize summer is full of vacations and busy calendars. Please use the phone numbers to change dates with your fellow students. Then, once you have agreed on the change-- PLEASE CALL THE CHURCH OFFICE and inform the secretary of those changes.

Thank you for your help in this area of St. Paul's ministry. To all the new confirmands a big "Congratulations!" I look forward to seeing you in senior youth group soon!

In Christian service,

Pastor Fairbairn

Dear Confirmand (and Parents),

In an effort to organize the acolyte schedule I have assigned everyone certain dates. While I kept in mind your preference for either the 8:30 or 11:00 service, you may occasionally need to acolyte at the other service.

ACOLYTING IS REQUIRED of ALL confirmation students. If you need to change a date you are assigned you must follow this procedure:

- 1) Call one of the other students until you find someone that will either swap dates or kindly fill in for you without you taking one of their dates. Both students should immediately mark their Acolyte Schedule before hanging up the phone. This will help avoid any forgetting or confusion.
- 2) Then you must call the church secretary, Margo Schmidt, and tell her the exact name changes. Please do not call the church office unless you have a name to replace yours. Only after you have asked all 11 students and are unable to find a replacement, should you call the church.

Do not assume that: "I can skip a Sunday or not call someone to replace me." This is your responsibility as a mature confirmation student. Your help is very much needed and appreciated by the members of your church family!

Please look over the Acolyte Schedule immediately and follow the above steps to make any changes. A list of student phone numbers is provided to make your job easier. I realize some of you have had only one class of training. If you have any questions about acolyting, please call me or come earlier that Sunday morning so that a pastor can go over your concerns.

Included is the Summer Schedule which still assigns students who were confirmed in May. I thank each of you and your parents for your help in making the acolyte program successful!

Serving together,

Pastor Fairbairn

Dear Junior Youth (and Parents),

Hello again. Here is the Schedule for the Jr. Youth Coffee Hour.

Students who are assigned for the first Sunday of each month will bring some kind of treat (such as coffeecake, fresh fruit, strudel, doughnuts, muffins, bagels, cheese squares, etc.) by 9:15 AM to the Parish Hall. If you don't set up before 8:30 service, keep in mind it takes the coffee pot time to brew.

If you are the Captain of that Sunday's crew (indicated with a > next to your name) you are in charge of

1. Bringing the drinks (milk, OJ, apple juice, punch, etc.)
2. Brewing the coffee [it takes 1 hour, see instructions in the kitchen], and
3. Making sure your crew (CALL THEM!) sets out their plate of goodies and cleans up by the time Bible study starts (around 10:00). Please condense food down to one or two plates, setting the remaining food and coffee carafes on the counter so that you can close the wood divider to quietly clean up as Bible study is getting started. >> Captains also collect the money in the donation basket and should leave it in the Counter's Room Deposit Box on the wall by the safe, with a note/label that says: "Youth Coffee Hour" money.

Captains should call the other crew families to remind them to bring food for that Sunday. If you can NOT serve on your Sunday follow the same requirements for replacing yourself as you do with the Acolyte schedule.

Meet and set up in the Parish Hall kitchen before 9:15 AM, even if you may need to leave the 8:30 worship early to have the food ready in time.
