Food for the Soul

AS WE GATHER

We face so many arguments about food these days. Go organic. Go gluten free. Go low carb. Go vegan. Go GMO free. Our culture is deeply concerned about what sort of food we put in our bodies, because the old saying “you are what you eat” is fairly accurate. While what sort of food we put into our bodies is an important concern, Jesus compels us to make another kind of food an even higher priority than the food we chew and digest. Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God. Jesus feeds five thousand people, thereby revealing that He is the Word of God Incarnate, the food that feeds more than our stomachs. Jesus feeds our souls. This was foreseen by the prophet Isaiah who wrote, “Come, everyone who thirsts . . . incline your ear, and come to Me; hear, that your soul may live.” The food we put into our bodies is important. Even more important is to gather in church for food that feeds the soul!

“Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good,
for His steadfast love endures forever” --Psalm 136:1

Confession and Absolution

Stand

Pastor: In the name of the Father and of the ☩ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen.

Pastor: If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

People: But if we confess our sins, God, who is faithful and just, will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Kneel/Stand

Pastor: Let us then confess our sins to God our Father.

People: Most merciful God, we confess that we are by nature sinful and unclean. We have sinned against You in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved You with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We justly deserve Your present and eternal punishment. For the sake of Your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in Your will and walk in Your ways to the glory of Your holy name. Amen.

Pastor: Almighty God in His mercy has given His Son to die for you and for His sake forgives you all your sins. As a called and ordained servant of Christ, and by His authority, I therefore forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the ☩ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen.

Epistle*Romans 9:1–5*

¹I am speaking the truth in Christ—I am not lying; my conscience bears me witness in the Holy Spirit—²that I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart. ³For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my brothers, my kinsmen according to the flesh. ⁴They are Israelites, and to them belong the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the worship, and the promises. ⁵To them belong the patriarchs, and from their race, according to the flesh, is the Christ who is God over all, blessed forever. Amen.

Reader: This is the Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Holy Gospel Matthew 14:13–21 (Jesus provides food in a desolate place.)

Reader: ¹³ As soon as Jesus heard the news, he left in a boat to a remote area to be alone. But the crowds heard where he was headed and followed on foot from many towns. ¹⁴ Jesus saw the huge crowd as he stepped from the boat, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.

¹⁵ That evening the disciples came to him and said, "This is a remote place, and it's already getting late. Send the crowds away so they can go to the villages and buy food for themselves."

People: ¹⁶ But Jesus said, "That isn't necessary—you feed them."
¹⁷ "But we have only five loaves of bread and two fish!" they answered.

Reader: ¹⁸ "Bring them here," he said. ¹⁹ Then he told the people to sit down on the grass. Jesus took the five loaves and two fish, looked up toward heaven, and blessed them. Then, breaking the loaves into pieces, he gave the bread to the disciples, who distributed it to the people. ²⁰ They all ate as much as they wanted, and afterward, the disciples picked up twelve baskets of leftovers. ²¹ About 5,000 men were fed that day, in addition to all the women and children!

Reader: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to You, O Christ.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth
and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the only-begotten Son of God,
begotten of His Father before all worlds,
God of God, Light of Light,
very God of very God,
begotten, not made,
being of one substance with the Father,
by whom all things were made;
who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary
and was made man;
and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate.
He suffered and was buried.
And the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures
and ascended into heaven
and sits at the right hand of the Father.
And He will come again with glory to judge both the living and the dead,
whose kingdom will have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord and giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified,
who spoke by the prophets.
And I believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church,
I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins,
and I look for the resurrection of the dead
and the life ✠ of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer of the Church

- Pastor: Let us go to our heavenly Father with prayers, praise, and thanksgiving. For those who have not truly heard the grace offered to all through the everlasting covenant given to David, but rely on the letter of the Law, expecting justice instead of mercy, let us pray to the Lord.
- People: Open their ears to hear and move people of faith to call them to turn to Your gracious invitation.
- Pastor: For the Holy Spirit's work through Word and Sacrament to instill and strengthen the faith of all who call out to God in hope and trust, let us praise the Lord.
- People: Praise to You, heavenly Father, through Christ our Lord, for the gift of faith by the Holy Spirit.
- Pastor: With one another and our brothers and sisters around the world, for all God's promises, which endure forever, let us thank our gracious God.
- People: Thanks be to You, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, for Your steadfast love.
- Pastor: For all who face this day with little or no food, with poor shelter and tattered clothes, without caring support or necessities, dealing with ongoing oppression and persecution, struggling through long-term ills and sudden man-made or natural disasters, [including . . .], that our gracious God would visit, relieve, strengthen, and surround them with caring people and the precious Gospel, let us pray to the Lord.

People: Hear our prayers for them and the longing in their hearts, gracious Lord.
Use us and our gifts to be part of Your answer to their fervent prayers.

Pastor: We bring all these things to You in the name of Your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord.

People: Amen.

It is well with my soul, It is well, it is well with my soul.

"It Is Well with My Soul" is a timeless hymn written by Chicago lawyer Horatio Spafford. Following a devastating fire that destroyed his business, he lost all four of his daughters in a tragic transatlantic shipwreck. Inspired by steadfast faith, he penned the lyrics to this hymn while crossing the exact spot where his children drowned.

Give our restless and tired hearts rest in You; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

People: Amen.

WELCOME!

OUR NEW MEMBERS

We welcome Megan Kutz officially as a member of St. Paul although she and her family have been worshipping with us for quite some time now. Megan transferred her membership from Saint Matthew Lutheran Church in Walled Lake. She is a Special Ed Teacher in Northville Public Schools. She likes writing, reading and yoga. She has already helped with several events including VBS and is on the prayer chain. She would like to help with FOG meals and be a reader. So happy to welcome her.

Please welcome Courtney Julien and her two sons Isaac (14) and Samuel (11) to the St. Paul family. The Julien family participated in VBS this year. Samuel and Isaac were youth helpers and Courtney took pictures. Courtney listed photography and helping at events here as some of her interests. She has already put her photography skills to work and she and Isaac helped with the grounds clean up day earlier this spring. Thank you and we look forward to working beside you more.

Romans 15:7 - "Welcome one another, therefore, just as Christ has welcomed you."

A delicious summer meal of Cheesy Chicken Pasta Salad was delivered to FOG on Tuesday, July 7. As always this was a joint effort with many people helping to supply the salads, rolls and butter, chips, watermelon, dessert and drinks.

Barbara Hoffmeier joined the servers at FOG with her two granddaughters. Claire and Elise were wonderful helpers and made friends with a young girl there. As we learned, the girls had gone down last year when they were in town and were anxious to go again. What beautiful servant hearts just like their Oma's.

Julia and Pat were so happy to see George. We had been missing him for quite some time and wondering where he was. As it turned out, he needed that support as his brother had passed away that morning. God comforts for the broken hearted and provides for our needs.

Pastor Nick is back from leave after the birth of his son, Walter. All we had to ask was "do you have any pictures" and he was ready to pull out his phone like every proud Daddy.

JULY 15 FOG DINNER

A meal of Sloppy Joes, green beans, chips, brownies and watermelon was delivered and just about everything was gone. What a great night. It was a smaller than usual group and the pastors thought it might have been because of the heat. There is an air conditioning unit in the meeting room but it didn't really help much. We were concerned that we might have a lot left over but when everyone was served, there was just a little bit of sloppy joes which we left.

Two of our servers were Ann Kelly and Kathy Verseman. Ann has been going down for a couple of months now and has become one of our regulars. There is always room for more and you might just fall in love with the mission and the people. The next meal is Tuesday, August 4. Julia Smith was another one of our servers and our official driver when she is available.

Thank you to everyone who helped prepare and serve this meal. As the sermon message was Sunday:

"For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in." –

Matthew 25:3

St. Paul's entry in the July 4th parade. It was pretty cool. It's been dismantled but we are not done yet. We have a dilemma. What to do with the wood which is in two places in the back of the parking lot. If you can use it, you are welcome to take it. If not, does anyone have an idea or suggestion to remove it from church property? Please contact Pat McGuigan or Margo in the office 248-349-3140.
