

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

September 21, 2025

8:30 AM

The Time Is Ripe

AS WE GATHER

The Divine Service is unlike our other activities during the week—in the marketplace, our place of employment, or our school—where we struggle to be “the people of God” amid the temptations and confusing details of living in a world still disfigured by sin, tragedy, selfishness, and death. By our own fault, we daily fall short of our calling as Christians. We are reminded today of the judgment of God’s Law by the prophet Amos against our worry over money and our own needs that distract us from the often-greater needs of others and even our own true need of faith and reliance on God above all. Each day of the week, the demands of the Ten Commandments of God call us back to our need for forgiveness and God’s mercy, grace, help, and love. So, we gather here for Divine Service, that is, God attending to our real needs. We come to repent of our sin and failure, and to receive forgiveness and new life and hope. By your Baptism into Christ, by His mighty and reliable Word of forgiveness spoken over and into you, and by your connection with the body and blood of your crucified and risen Lord Jesus, you are being delivered from all evil, redeemed, restored, and forgiven for everlasting life in the kingdom of God already here and now.

WELCOME – Pastor Christopher Fairbairn

INVOCATION

Pastor: In the name of the Father and of the ☩ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen.

OPENING SENTENCES Psalm 43:4; 113:7

Pastor: I will go to the altar of God,

People: to God my exceeding joy.

Pastor: The Lord raises the poor from the dust

People: and lifts the needy from the ash heap.

CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

Pastor: Let us confess our sins in the light of God's holy Commandments.

Pastor: Thus says the Lord: "Remember the Sabbath day by keeping it holy."

People: Lord God, we confess to You that we often forget Your Word by allowing other concerns of daily living and our own desires take priority over Your ways of mercy and love. Forgive us, O Lord.

Pastor: Thus says the Lord: "You shall not murder."

People: Lord God, we confess to You that we have hurt and harmed our neighbors, especially by our neglect of the needs of others. Forgive us, O Lord.

Pastor: Thus says the Lord: "You shall not give false testimony against your neighbor."

People: Lord God, we confess to You our rash words, harsh judgments, and false accusations against our neighbor, but even more our failure to defend and help those who have been wrongfully shamed, abused, or accused. Forgive us, O Lord.

Pastor: God, our Savior, desires all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. For the sake of the one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, who gave Himself as a ransom for all, and by His command, I proclaim to you His Word: I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the ☩ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen.

SALUTATION

Pastor: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Pastor: Let us pray. O Lord, You call us to be faithful in very little in order to be trusted with much. Preserve us by Your perpetual mercy, and because without You we cannot but fall, keep us from all things hurtful and lead us to all things profitable to our salvation; for You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

People: Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT READING*Amos 8:4–7*

(The coming day of bitter mourning)

⁴ Listen to this, you who rob the poor and trample down the needy!

⁵ You can't wait for the Sabbath day to be over and the religious festivals to end
so you can get back to cheating the helpless.
You measure out grain with dishonest measures and cheat the buyer with dishonest scales.

⁶ And you mix the grain you sell with chaff swept from the floor.
Then you enslave poor people for one piece of silver or a pair of sandals.

⁷ Now the Lord has sworn this oath
by his own name, the Pride of Israel:

"I will never forget the wicked things you have done!

Reader: This is the Word of the Lord

People: Thanks be to God.

EPISTLE 1 Timothy 2:1–15 (Pray for all people, for God desires all to be saved.)

Reader: I urge, then, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for all people—² for kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness.

People: ³ This is good, and pleases God our Savior, ⁴ who wants all people to be saved and to come to a knowledge of the truth. ⁵ For there is one God and one mediator between God and mankind, the man Christ Jesus, ⁶ who gave himself as a ransom for all people. This has now been witnessed to at the proper time. ⁷ And for this purpose I was appointed a herald and an apostle—I am telling the truth, I am not lying—and a true and faithful teacher of the Gentiles.

Reader: ⁸ Therefore I want the men everywhere to pray, lifting up holy hands without anger or disputing. ⁹ I also want the women to dress modestly, with decency and propriety, adorning themselves, not with elaborate hairstyles or gold or pearls or expensive clothes, ¹⁰ but with good deeds, appropriate for women who profess to worship God. ¹¹ A woman should learn in quietness and full submission. ¹² I do not permit a woman to teach or to assume authority over a man; she must be quiet. ¹³ For Adam was formed first, then Eve. ¹⁴ And Adam was not the one deceived; it was the woman who was deceived and became a sinner. ¹⁵ But women will be saved through childbearing—if they continue in faith, love and holiness with propriety.

Reader: This is the Word of the Lord

People: Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL Luke 16:1–15 (Jesus tells the curious story of a dishonest man who cheats his employer and then is commended by him for having acted so shrewdly. Jesus wonders why his own followers are less creative and diligent in their stewardship given that they are managers of a far more valuable household.)

Jesus told his disciples: “There was a rich man whose manager was accused of wasting his possessions. ² So he called him in and asked him, ‘What is this I hear about you? Give an account of your management, because you cannot be manager any longer.’

³ “The manager said to himself, ‘What shall I do now? My master is taking away my job. I’m not strong enough to dig, and I’m ashamed to beg— ⁴ I know what I’ll do so that, when I lose my job here, people will welcome me into their houses.’

⁵ “So he called in each one of his master’s debtors. He asked the first, ‘How much do you owe my master?’

⁶ “‘Nine hundred gallons of olive oil,’ he replied.

“The manager told him, ‘Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it four hundred and fifty.’

⁷ "Then he asked the second, 'And how much do you owe?'

"'A thousand bushels of wheat,' he replied.

"He told him, 'Take your bill and make it eight hundred.'

⁸ "The master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly. For the people of this world are more shrewd in dealing with their own kind than are the people of the light. ⁹ I tell you, use worldly wealth to gain friends for yourselves, so that when it is gone, you will be welcomed into eternal dwellings.

¹⁰ "Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with much, and whoever is dishonest with very little will also be dishonest with much. ¹¹ So if you have not been trustworthy in handling worldly wealth, who will trust you with true riches? ¹² And if you have not been trustworthy with someone else's property, who will give you property of your own?

¹³ "No one can serve two masters. Either you will hate the one and love the other, or you will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money."

¹⁴ The Pharisees, who loved money, heard all this and were sneering at Jesus. ¹⁵ He said to them, "You are the ones who justify yourselves in the eyes of others, but God knows your hearts. What people value highly is detestable in God's sight.

Reader: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to You, O Christ.

THE APOSTLES CREED

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Christian church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

You are My All in All

You are my strength when I am weak,
You are the Treasure that I seek.
You are my All in All.
Seeking You as a precious jewel,
Lord, to give up I'd be a fool.
You are my All in All.

Chorus:

Jesus, Lamb of God
Worthy is Your name.
Jesus, Lamb of god
Worthy is Your name

Taking my sin, my cross, my shame,
Rising again I bless Your name.
You are my All in All.
When I fall down You pick me up,
When I am dry You fill my cup.
You are my All in All.

Chorus:

Jesus, Lamb of God
Worthy is Your name.
Jesus, Lamb of god
Worthy is Your name.

THE PRAYERS

Pastor: Let us pray. Almighty and merciful God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, "The sum of Your word is truth, and every one of Your just and righteous decrees endures forever." With hearts renewed by Your gift of true repentance in the light of our sins and true faith in the redemption given through the sacrifice of Your own beloved Son for the life of the world, we give You thanks for Your Word and work of Law and Gospel. Help us to keep Your Word and bring forth its fruit in our daily lives. Lord, in Your mercy,

People: hear our prayer.

Pastor: We pray You so to rule and guide Your whole church, blessing all pastors with the spirit of unity in faith and confession. Grant Your blessing also of all here present whose faith is known to You, accepting their prayers and praises as from thankful hearts. Lord, in Your mercy,

People: hear our prayer.

Pastor: We pray for the health and good will of all who serve in the authority of government in our nation that they may serve according to Your will that we may live in quietness and peace. Lord, in Your mercy,

People: hear our prayer.

Pastor: Comfort and attend to all who are in trouble; those suffering sickness, injury, or fear of death; and especially those who have requested our prayers. [Pause for silent prayer.] Grant them patience and healing of both mind and body. Lord, in Your mercy,

People: hear our prayer.

Pastor: Remembering Your holy ones of old, the patriarchs, prophets, apostles, and martyrs, as well as our loved ones of most recent memory, we ask You to include us in their company not on account of any merit on our part but solely because of Your great mercy. Grant all who have died in faith a place of peace and rest. Lord, in Your mercy,

People: hear our prayer.

Pastor: Into Your hands, O Lord, we commend all for whom we pray, trusting in Your mercy; through Your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord.

People: Amen.

Another MOST eyeglass mission trip is currently being planned for April 11-18 2026 at a mission church in the town of Pasaquina in El Salvador. MOST has only recently established a presence in El Salvador, and we are excited to be among the first MOST missions to that country. We are establishing an email contact list for anyone who would like to be kept informed as we go forward with the planning. The list is not only for “goers”, people considering going on the trip, but also for “senders”, people who might want to be involved with supporting the team with fundraisers, etc. There is no commitment so if you would like to be kept informed, please forward your email address to Chris Burgess at chris.burgess917@gmail.com.

We have an exciting opportunity to help fund the 2026 MOST eyeglass mission trip. Some very generous members of our St. Paul family have offered the rental of their 2 bedroom 2 bath condo at the Sands of Kahana Resort in Maui, Hawaii over Thanksgiving week (Nov 21-28). The rent will be donated in support of our April mission trip. The condo sleeps 6 and would be a wonderful way to spend a family Thanksgiving holiday in beautiful Hawaii! Here is the Sands of Kahana website: <https://www.sandsofkahanaresort.com>. For more information, please contact Barbara Hoffmeier bhoffmeier3@gmail.com.

September 2 was our last summer meal at Family of God for 2025. In October we serve our hot tamale casserole which is a favorite. Our cold Cheesy Pasta Casserole makers were Bill & Janet Kovalak, Julia Smith (also driver), Pat McGuigan (also server), Gretchen Hasse, Claudia Williamson (also server), Cindi Gliesman, Kathy Verseman and Mary Lou Jaussi. We took over 100 buttered (which we used from the refrigerator) rolls that Anne Burgess and Missy Kruecher supplied, all of them were gone! Katy Baetz-Matthews supplied 3 big bags of chips, we really watched our serving size and we ran out, so we need to bump up our quantity next summer. They love their chips. Beth & Chuck Hempel cut up 3 watermelons which they loved it, the pan was empty but it served everyone that wanted some. Our beverages Chocolate & White Milk and 2 gallons of drinks Marti Gilchrist purchased for us and a case of water by Michele Benson. We received an abundance of dessert which was nice to give an extra cookie if asked for, we had a few left over that we brought to rally day. Our dessert suppliers were Michele Benson, Carolyn Nieuwkoop, Missy Kruecher, Janise Faeber and Dean Siskonen (the Hershey kisses man). Marcy loaded up our paper products, think they shrunk the size of our Gordon Food Bags, it was overflowing and Jeanette helped in Margo's absence to be our kitchen organizer. Pat was excited to see her young helper, she found out his name is Brandon, nice young man and so willing to serve. We discovered his dad was there as well. We served 104 plus meals that night. We had a great night and the drive back and forth was very pleasant, Julia does a nice job getting us down and back, thank you Jesus. We also thank Jesus for all of you that help us. We appreciate your support and so does the community at Family of God. May God Bless all of you.

“Many hands make light work”

As we all head back from a beautiful summer and think about school and all the activities that start up with fall, let's remember this month's Women in Christ mission grant entitled Gospel Building for a Child's Future (Hands of Mercy) for $14,500. This grant supports the students of Lutheran congregations which are supported by an expanded Hands of Mercy training center at Yambio, South Sudan. The grant enables the students to gain Bible literacy through using My First Catechism and includes workbooks and children's Bibles. The classrooms will be fitted for children's safety and improved learning environments and will have wooden desks and white boards. The Women in Christ graciously thank you for helping us fulfill our mission grants over the years.
