

THIRD SUNDAY IN ADVENT

11:00 AM

December 14, 2025

The Coming One? Trust the BIG Picture!

AS WE GATHER

We are often tempted to think we deserve something better. If things don't go as planned, if crisis hits, or we are lacking happiness, we begin to question things. It happens in life, and it also happens as a temptation in our life of faith. We are not left alone in our wishing or our wondering about our Savior Jesus Christ and what He has done for us. His Word of truth reminds us of His works and His ways. In today's Lessons, Isaiah gives a message of future hope to the hopeless people; James reminds us of the Lord's attributes even in times of our suffering; and in a time of questioning for the imprisoned John the Baptist, Jesus brings a message of hope and confidence in his time of need. Though we are sinful and no person deserves something "better," by God's grace, we, too, receive that same reminder and message of hope of who God is and what He's done through Christ this Advent season and each day.

WELCOME – Pastor Christopher Fairbairn

RINGING OF THE BELL

INVOCATION

Pastor: As we continue in this season of Advent, we begin this time of worship and recall our baptismal grace. In the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen.

Pastor: To the Father, who made the heavens and the earth and humanity as the crown of His creation,

People: set us free.

Pastor: To the Son, who came to be a prisoner to sin and death so that we could be free,

People: come, Lord Jesus.

Pastor: To the Holy Spirit, who releases the chains of our captive souls and points us to our Savior,

People: set us free. Amen.

LIGHTING OF THE ADVENT WREATH Matt. 11:4–5; Isaiah 35:10; Ps. 119:105

Pastor: Beloved in the Lord, this wreath and the candles progressively lit each week remind us that Jesus Christ came to conquer the darkness of sin and lead us into the light of His glorious kingdom. In this Advent season of preparing our hearts and minds to receive the promised Savior given and born for us, we are assured that no matter what trials we may face, Jesus' works of salvation show that He is the Promised One. "Jesus answered them, 'Go and tell John what you hear and see:

People: the blind receive their sight and the lame walk, lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised up, and the poor have good news preached to them.' "

Pastor: Let us pray. Lord Jesus, Savior and King, the true light who comes into this world, bless us as we light this candle in preparation for Your coming. Enter our hearts and minds with the light of Your love that we may welcome and receive You with joy as true and eternal King; for You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

People: Amen.

Pastor: Your word is a lamp to my feet

People: and a light to my path.

CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

Pastor: Let us confess our sins before God and one another.
We come humbly before You, O Lord, recognizing that we have not always responded to Your grace in faithfulness and obedience. Often we feel we deserve more or better, forgetting and rejecting Your Word and Your works of salvation.

People: At times, we are lured by the world's deceptions, consumed by greed, passion, and desire. We fail to be thoroughly grounded in Your Word. Forgive us, dear Lord, for rejoicing in the temporal treasures on earth instead of the eternal treasures of heaven.

Pastor: We have sinned against You in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone.

People: Forgive my impatience and my neglect. By Your Spirit, lead me to greater faith, obedience, service, and repentance until Your call to eternal glory comes.

Pastor: Our Lord invites us to come and see what He has done—He has given us solid promises that guard our faith in days of sorrow, suffering, confusion, conflict, and pain. He has sent His Son to be the Word of life. To those who believe in Jesus Christ He gives the power to become the children of God. May the Lord, who has begun this good work in us, bring it to completion in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

People: Amen. Thanks be to God!

SALUTATION

Pastor: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Pastor: Let us pray. You came, Lord Jesus, as the Promised One when the time was fulfilled. And we know You will come again at Your time. We see that darkness overtakes the earth and causes suffering, pain, and fear. Yet in this darkness, a great light has risen up. Through Your Word and Sacraments, let the light be so clear that all people walk in it; for You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

People: Amen.

O Little Town of Bethlehem

1 O little town of Bethlehem,
 How still we see thee lie!
 Above thy deep and dreamless sleep
 The silent stars go by;
 Yet in thy dark streets shineth
 The everlasting light.
 The hopes and fears of all the years
 Are met in thee tonight.

2 For Christ is born of Mary,
 And, gathered all above
 While mortals sleep, the angels keep
 Their watch of wond'ring love.
 O morning stars, together
 Proclaim the holy birth,
 And praises sing to God the king
 And peace to all the earth!

3 How silently, how silently
 The wondrous gift is giv'n!
 So God imparts to human hearts
 The blessings of His heav'n.
 No ear may hear His coming;
 But in this world of sin,
 Where meek souls will receive Him, still
 The dear Christ enters in.

4 O holy Child of Bethlehem,
 Descend to us, we pray;
 Cast out our sin, and enter in,
 Be born in us today.
 We hear the Christmas angels
 The great glad tidings tell;
 O come to us, abide with us,
 Our Lord Immanuel!

EPISTLE James 5:7–11 (Patience in suffering as we wait for the Lord)

Reader: ⁷ Be patient, therefore, brothers, until the coming of the Lord. See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient about it, until it receives the early and the late rains. ⁸ You also, be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is at hand. ⁹ Do not grumble against one another, brothers, so that you may not be judged; behold, the Judge is standing at the door. ¹⁰ As an example of suffering and patience, brothers, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. ¹¹ Behold, we consider those blessed who remained steadfast. You have heard of the steadfastness of Job, and you have seen the purpose of the Lord, how the Lord is compassionate and merciful.

Reader: This is the Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God!

CHILDREN'S MESSAGE

HOLY GOSPEL Matthew 11:2–15 (In John the Baptist's doubt, Jesus affirms He is the Promised One proven by His ministry.)

² Now when John heard in prison about the deeds of the Christ, he sent word by his disciples ³ and said to him, "Are you the one who is to come, or shall we look for another?" ⁴ And Jesus answered them, "Go and tell John what you hear and see: ⁵ the blind receive their sight and the lame walk, lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised up, and the poor have good news preached to them. ⁶ And blessed is the one who is not offended by me."

⁷ As they went away, Jesus began to speak to the crowds concerning John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? ⁸ What then did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft clothing? Behold, those who wear soft clothing are in kings' houses. ⁹ What then did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. ¹⁰ This is he of whom it is written, "Behold, I send my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you.'

¹¹ Truly, I say to you, among those born of women there has arisen no one greater than John the Baptist. Yet the one who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. ¹² From the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven has suffered violence, and the violent take it by force. ¹³ For all the Prophets and the Law prophesied until John, ¹⁴ and if you are willing to accept it, he is Elijah who is to come. ¹⁵ He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

Reader: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to You, O Christ.

THE APOSTLES CREED

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Christian church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

MESSAGE – Pastor Christopher FairbairnPRAYER OF THE CHURCH

Pastor: Let us now pray for the Church of God and for all people according to their needs. Ever-present and comforting Lord, we pray for all those who have doubts and fears, suffering and sadness, grief and sorrow. As you affirmed John the Baptist and others that You are the true God to come to His people, we now also lift up in prayer all who wait in their time of need. We pray for all our sick who wait for healing and recovery.

People: Come, Lord Jesus, with Your healing Spirit.

Pastor: We pray for the grieving who in their loss wait with heavy hearts.

People: Come, Lord Jesus, bring hope to those who feel hopeless.

Pastor: We pray for all who experience transitions in jobs, relationships, and are in the middle of conflict or change, who wait for peace and security.

People: Come, Lord Jesus, and grant Your steadfast presence in times of change.

Pastor: We pray for nations and people waiting for peace,

People: Come, Lord Jesus, Prince of Peace, and bring justice to all.

Pastor: We pray for those who sit in darkness, waiting to hear the Good News of forgiveness, hope, and life through Your Word,

People: Come to them in Your Word, and use us as witnesses and instruments through Your Spirit.

Pastor: Into Your hands, O Lord, we commend all for whom we pray, trusting in Your mercy through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

People: Come, Lord Jesus. Amen.

OFFERING OF OUR TITHES AND GIFTS

If you brought your offering today, you are welcome to leave it in the offering box you will find at the back of the church. Thank you.

We invite our guests and members to fill out our Friendship Card during worship, which is found on the back of the pew. Please leave your card at the end of the pew near the center aisle as you leave.

THE SACRAMENT

Pastor: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Pastor: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Pastor: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

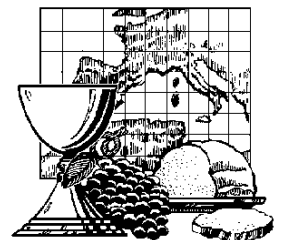

People: It is right to give Him thanks and praise.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

THE WORDS OF INSTITUTION

Please see our communion policy stated on the inside front cover.

THE DISTRIBUTION

COMMUNION WINE: For those who may not be able to take regular wine, we offer non-alcoholic wine, which is the light colored wine in the center of the communion tray.

++ We offer Gluten-free wafers upon request. ++

BLESSING OF THE COMMUNICANTS

Pastor: Almighty God, You gave Your servant John the Baptist to be the forerunner of Your Son, Jesus Christ, in both his preaching of repentance and his innocent death. Grant that we, who have died and risen with Christ in Holy Baptism, may daily repent of our sins, patiently suffer for the sake of the truth, and fearlessly bear witness to His victory over death; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

People: Amen.

BENEDICTION

Pastor: Go and tell what you hear and see:

People: the blind receive their sight and the lame walk, lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised up, and the poor have good news preached to them.

Pastor: The Lord is coming soon.

People: Come, Lord Jesus, come to set us free.

Pastor: The blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the ☩ Son, and the Holy Spirit, abide with you, now and forever.

People: Amen.

Show your school spirit and support St. Paul Preschool by purchasing one of our exclusive St. Paul Lutheran Northville Panthers T-shirts! Order forms are available in the church near the entrance and in the school entrance. Payment can be made by cash or check. A portion of each sale goes toward securing the future of our preschool program. Thank you for your support!

A mission trip euchre card game fundraiser will take place on Saturday, Jan. 17, 2026, 6:30-9:00 pm. Twelve members of our congregation have committed to participating in an eyeglass clinic in El Salvador in April. The cost of the trip is about $3,000 per person. This fundraiser will help defray the cost for our participants. If you are new to the game, we are happy to instruct. There will be appetizers, beverages, snacks and prizes. The cost is $15 per person, $5 for youth. Please mark your calendar and join us for an evening of fun and fellowship.

The early December meal for Family of God went very well and the weather cooperated and Julia got us there and back safely. We had 10 volunteers making Chicken Tamale Casserole my favorite, I wasn't sure we would get 10 so I started asking if some could double up. God is faithful and He provided 10. Thank you Mary Lou Jaussi, Julia Smith, Kathy McFall (her son volunteered her but she was okay with that), Claudia Williamson, Carole Grimmer 1st timer, Melanie, Janet Kovalak, Gretchen Hasse, Alison Babic (another 1st timer) and Sue Poole. Sour Cream was provided by Jan Faerber & Carolyn Nieuwkoop; Salsa: Carolyn Nieuwkoop and Sue Poole; Nacho Chips Chris Henning; Fresh Fruit Katy Baetz-Matthews and Heather Roucker(?); Beverages Shelly Waldorff - Case of Water and Marti Gilchrist - White/chocolate Milk, Juice (2); Dessert Cheryl Bailey (24), Beth Hempel (30); Janise Faerber (24) and Britney Fairbairn (30), I believe first timer too! Our Servers were Julia Smith (driver), Sue Poole, Shelly Ernst and Cheryl Bailey. Marcy gathers our paper products for each visit. Thank you all, it was a success and we enjoyed ourselves with friendly conversation and good work. We served about 90 servings. God bless you all and Merry Christmas.

The Giving Tree this year will be adorned with ornaments that represent children in need from Another Way Pregnancy Center in Farmington Hills. We are proud to partner with them this year. It's so easy:

- 1) Take home an ornament.
- 2) Purchase the item(s).
- 3) Return the item(s) with the ornament attached.

All gifts can be dropped off in the Parish Hall by December 21. AWPC thanks you for your generosity.

PLEASE JOIN US FOR A TRADITIONAL FUN EVENT OF CHRISTMAS CAROLING

Sunday December 21st, 3-6 pm

Meet at St Paul's Fellowship Hall at 3:00 to carpool.
You will be given maps, a colorful scarf, a songbook, and jingle bells.
We will serve a light supper around 6:00pm back at the church.

Double Blessings at Family of God - The night didn't go quite as expected, but it all worked out well. We left early to drive down to serve. When we arrived another church, Shepherd's Gate from Shelby Two, was set-up. It was a scheduling error. They normally go on the 4th Wednesday but something changed due to Thanksgiving. Oh well, we squished our food amidst theirs and everyone had a choice. Their fried chicken was first in line and I was afraid that we would have 8 or 9 leftover casseroles. As it turned out, people also loved the casseroles. Everyone was able to have generous seconds and take home containers. Chris and Jeff Henning and Nancy Berg did the shopping. The menu was uncomplicated since the meat had been prepared in advance, Mark Potter was a great help in the kitchen preparing the meal. This month our famous Brownie bakers were: Beth Hempel, Anne Burgess, Debbie Pichan and Chris Henning. Will Hoffmier was the driver and took Dawn and Chris Englert, and Doug and Nancy Berg to help serve. Marcy gathers our paper products and they are always bundled up and ready to go. "Thank You" to everyone for all your help and support!

Another MOST eyeglass mission trip is currently being planned for April 11-18 2026 at a mission church in the town of Pasaquina in El Salvador. MOST has only recently established a presence in El Salvador, and we are excited to be among the first MOST missions to that country. We are establishing an email contact list for anyone who would like to be kept informed as we go forward with the planning. The list is not only for "goers", people considering going on the trip, but also for "senders", people who might want to be involved with supporting the team with fundraisers, etc. There is no commitment so if you would like to be kept informed, please forward your email address to Chris Burgess at chris.burgess917@gmail.com.

As we celebrate the miraculous gift God gave us in His son's birth, let us think of others during this Christmas season. For the month of December, Women In Christ is highlighting an LWML mission grant that provides funds to assist in the ministry of the Orphan Grain Train in the amount of $18,000. The Orphan Grain Train has volunteers in 27 locations across the United States who gather clothes and other relief supplies for destitute people around the world. Their motto is "Sharing resources and bringing Christ's name and character to needy people both far and near." Please keep the Orphan Grain Train in your prayers.

Thank you to all the Saint Paul Families and friends who came out Sunday 11.30.25 after to church to help beautify the church for Christmas! It was fun and took no time at all to make our house of worship sparkle! Thank you also to the McFall family for coming out Monday to put some finishing touches on the narthex area- it really looks fantastic!

1/1/2026– CHURCH OFFICE CLOSED – Thursday

I would like to thank all the groups that help support the "Blessing Bag" Ministry for our less fortunate brothers and sisters on the streets of Detroit! –

God's Sparrows – a group that shops for and packs those colorful tote bags you see in the parish hall- they are a group that formed specifically to support this mission- out of Ann Arbor.

We are Planners – a Down River group that crochets the sleeping mats out of plastic bags.

Lutheran Church of the Redeemer – Birmingham, knitting group makes dozens of hats and scarves to pass out.

Allen Terrace Northville – does frequent hygiene item drives and supplies hats and scarves in the winter.

Genetti's Northville – has collected coats and other seasonally appropriate items.

Computer Business in Northville (wants to remain anonymous) – supplies funding for emergency needs year round.

R.A.I.N. A. (reaching All in Need of Assistance) – a non-profit out of Woodhaven that has done multiple collections for our less fortunate friends.

Saint Paul Lutheran Church Board of Evangelism

I would also like to thank the many (dozens) who buy blankets, drop off needed items, supply funding and deliver bags! (some don't even live in Michigan, they amazon in items needed-dozens of boots etc.) Detroit is HUGE and the need is HUGE. The biggest cause of homelessness is lack of affordable housing. The population of houseless friends is made up of teenagers, seniors, those with mental illness and no appropriate housing, trafficked women and men and more. Thank to everyone who has helped! Love , Margo

OUR NEW MEMBERS

Please welcome former members Steven and Kathleen McFall. Kathleen was baptized at St. Paul in 1995. Also, joining us is Jason, Kathleen and Steven's son. Jason was also baptized and confirmed here. Jason has two sons, Jackson age 7 and Liam age 9. We look forward to getting to know them better, and many people have already welcomed them back.
