Savior, Servant, Friend

*I have called you friends, for all that I have heard from my Father I have made known to you.
John 15:15*

Jesus as Healer

AS WE GATHER

Welcome! In this service for Week 1 of Lent, we consider the fact that Jesus is our Healer. In word and song, we will remember that Jesus heals us of the sickness of our sin through his death on the cross and makes us well again in our very souls.

WEEK TWO

Jesus as Listener • Jesus listens to us like no other and answers our questions and concerns.

WEEK THREE

Jesus as Encourager • Jesus encourages us in our faith to live our life for him.

WEEK FOUR

Jesus as Protector • Jesus protects us from the devil and from danger and keeps us safe in him.

WEEK FIVE

Jesus as Comforter • Jesus comforts us in struggles and sorrows that we might find rest in his promises.

Confession and Forgiveness

P Be gracious to us, O Lord, hear our confession and heal our iniquity.

C My thoughts have veered away from your paths of righteousness.

P My ways have departed from your ways.

C My seeking to gain control has made me a slave to sin.

P My desires have brought disease into my heart and life.

C My sin makes me waste away from within.

P My heart cries out for forgiveness and healing.

C Lord, have mercy! Christ, have mercy! Lord, have mercy!

(Please silently reflect on the fact that Jesus heals us from the rot and disease of sin.)

P Your healer, Christ Jesus, has good news for you! The healing mercy of Jesus is stronger than the disease of sin. Your Savior, Servant, Friend brings healing to you through the cross and the empty tomb. Jesus forgives you of all your sins and he applies a healing balm to your heart, soul and all of your life. Because of your friend Jesus, you are forgiven. Amen.

C What a friend we have in Jesus.

Prayer of the Day

P Almighty and everlasting God, you created us for life and flourishing, not for death and disease. Turn our hearts from all that is contrary to you, and bring us back to your healing ways. Let us seek you and the eternal healing that you alone provide. Let us desire friendship with you so that we are healed by love. We pray through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

Old Testament Reading, Malachi 4:1-3

For behold, the day is coming, burning like an oven, when all the arrogant and all evildoers will be stubble. The day that is coming shall set them ablaze, says the Lord of hosts, so that it will leave them neither root nor branch. But for you who fear my name, the sun of righteousness shall rise with healing in its wings. You shall go out leaping like calves from the stall. And you shall tread down the wicked, for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet, on the day when I act, says the Lord of hosts.

Reader: This is the Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Epistle Reading, 1 Peter 2:23-25

When he was reviled, he did not revile in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten, but continued entrusting himself to him who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. For you were straying like sheep, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

Reader: This is the Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading, Matthew 8:14-17

And when Jesus entered Peter's house, he saw his mother-in-law lying sick with a fever. He touched her hand, and the fever left her, and she rose and began to serve him. That evening they brought to him many who were oppressed by demons, and he cast out the spirits with a word and healed all who were sick. This was to fulfill what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah: "He took our illnesses and bore our diseases."

Reader: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to You, O Christ.
